

NRC's Safety Culture and Knowledge Management Initiatives

Meena Khanna, Acting Deputy Director
Division of Policy and Rulemaking
Office of Nuclear Reactor Regulation
U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission

August 6, 2014

What is an Open Collaborative Work Environment?

A work environment that encourages all employees and contractors to promptly raise concerns and differing views without fear of reprisal.

Safety Culture

- Open Collaborative Work Environment
 - Improves our regulatory decision-making
 - Engages, empowers, and maximizes the potential of staff
 - Creates and sustains excellence

- Agency Initiatives
 - U.S. Office of Personnel Management Federal Employee Viewpoint Survey
 - Office of Inspector General Safety Culture and Climate Survey
 - Safety Culture Action Plans

- External Activities:

- Regulatory Information Conference
- NUREG-1537
- NUREG-1478
- Security inspection procedures

- Internal Activities:

- SharePoint
- Internal website
- PM handbook
- Qualification program
- Questioning attitude
- Departing/retiring staff interviews